

The background of the poster is a photograph of the Strathfield Girls High School entrance. The building is made of red brick with a blue horizontal band above the glass entrance doors. A large sign above the entrance reads "STRATHFIELD GIRLS" in large blue letters and "A LANGUAGES HIGH SCHOOL" in smaller blue letters below it. To the right of the sign, there is a small white box with the text "Donat" and "YEAR". On the right side of the image, there is a large green bush and a white paper airplane icon pointing towards the school entrance.
